

- MTFC support in the foster home leads to improvement in foster parent skills (increase in reinforcement relative to discipline);
- Effective foster parent skills and therapeutic interventions provided by MTFC staff lead to a decrease in child problems;
- A decrease in child problems increases successful reunification and decreases placement disruptions;
- The placement experience and accompanying support and guidance provided to foster parents results in increased model-specific skills, which benefits future placements in the home.